MAJ. CHAS. M. WHITTLESEY

Maj. Charles M. Whittlesey, formerly a New York lawyer, commanded the "lost battalion" of Americans which for five days was surrounded by Germans in the Argonne forest but refused to surrender. When the men were rescued most of them were utterly exhausted.

TRY TO TIE UP U. S. BOATS

Striking Marine Workers in New York Harbor Attempt to Stop Operation of Government Vessels.

New York, March 6.—The tieup of this port, resulting from the strike of 16,000 marine workers, which went into effect Wednesday, is now more complete and congestion is reported at most of the local docks. Three additional ferry lines stopped as the result of the walkout of their crews, and extra trains were operated in the Hudson tubes in order to take care of the great crowds of commuters. Municipal ferries were pressed into service to convey thousands of ship workers to Staten Island. Efforts to stop the operation of government boats engaged in the big Pugh terminal, were begun by the strike leaders.

NAVY MEN DENY FOUL PLAY

Intelligence Agents Reiterate Story That Samuel Moss Leaped From Window in Chicago.

Chicago, March 6.—Naval intelligence officers repudiated all suggestion that foul play or accident was responsible for the death of Samuel Moss, and clung to their original statements that he leaped from the window of the "No. 1" and they were not at all interested in the matter. They said the eighth floor of the Commonwealth Edison building after making admissions that implicated him in discharge graft at Great Lakes naval training station.
 Lieut. William B. Edwards and Lieut.
 R. E. Russey thus testified before the board of inquiry when it resumed its hearings aboard the training vessel Commodore.

COTTON EXCHANGE IS CLOSED

Trading Stopped in New York to Permit Adjustments to New Law Provisions.

New York, March 6.—Managers of the New York Cotton exchange decided to close the exchange until Thursday in order to permit members to readjust trading to provisions of the wheat bill passed yesterday by congress which affect the cotton futures act.

NAVY JOBS GO TO FIGHTERS

Naval Stations and Yards Ordered to Give Positions to Men Who Quit to Go to War.

Washington, March 6.—Naval stations and yards were directed by Secretary Daniels to restore to former positions upon discharge all men who left noncombatant work to enter a fighting branch of the service.

Pork Ban Lifted By War Board.

Washington. — Removal of pork and pork products from the export conservation list was announced by the War Trade Board effective. At the same time the board rescinded the regulations by which all applications for licenses to export these commodities to European destinations were required to bear a certificate from the Food Administration, showing that the administration had approved the sale price.

Russian Soviets Attempt Big Loan.
 Stockholm.—The Soviet Government of Russia hopes to be able to arrange a big loan in America, and is prepared to offer in exchange important mining and railroad concessions, according to Petrograd advices received here. Reports show that the internal war in Russia has cost 4,000,000,000 rubles during the past four months, and an extra levy of 10,000,000,000 has been insufficient to cover the total deficit of the Soviet Government. It is said that the Bolshevik treasury is hardly able to raise 450,000,000 rubles.

U. S. WON'T GIVE UP ROADS

Government Has No Immediate Intention of Giving Carriers Back to Owners.

Washington, March 6.—The government has no immediate intention of relinquishing control of railroads as a result of the failure of congress to appropriate funds for the railroad administration, Director General Hines stated.

YANKS' GREAT AID
TO ALLIES IN WAR

BARED BY PERSHING IN BAKER'S REPORT IN DESCRIBING FIGHTS WON BY THEM.

Demands For Prompt Action Are Fulfilled By United States Troops, Commander Asserts—Writes Vivid Account of Crushing of St. Mihiel.

Western Newspaper Union News Service.

Washington.—Gen. John J. Pershing's account of his stewardship as commander of the American expeditionary forces was given to the public by Secretary Baker. It is in the form of a preliminary report to the Secretary, covering operations up to the day of the German collapse. It closes with these words from the leader of the great army in France, expressing his feeling for those who served under him:

"I pay the supreme tribute to our officers and soldiers of the line. When I think of their heroism, their patience under hardships, their unflinching spirit of offensive action, I am filled with emotion which I am unable to express. Their deeds are immortal, and they have earned the eternal gratitude of our country."

The report begins with General Pershing's departure for France to pave the way for the army that was to smash German resistance on the Meuse and give vital aid to the allies in forcing Germany to its knees 19 months later. Its striking feature is General Pershing's section devoted to "combat operations" where he tells the story of the fighting. General Pershing views the encounters before March 21 of this year, in which American troops participated as a part of their training, and dismisses them briefly. On that date, however, the great German offensive was launched and a crucial situation quickly developed in the allied lines, which called for prompt use of the American divisions that were at that time "equal to any demands of battle action." The first crisis of the German drive had been reached in Picardy. "The crisis which this offensive developed was such," General Pershing says, "that our occupation of an American sector must be postponed. On March 28 I placed at the disposal of Marshal Foch, who had been agreed upon as Commander in Chief of the allied armies, all of our force to be used as he might decide."

Accused of Beheading Two Men.

Chicago.—John Peres is being held on a charge of a double murder, committed at the Standard Oil plant at Whiting, Ind. Peres, an Austrian, 23 years old, resented an order of David McLaughlin, foreman of the paraffine department, and police say, beheaded him with a large knife used for cutting paraffine. John Winswork, assistant foreman, who sought to aid his superior, also was beheaded. Five special policemen were wounded before Peres was subdued.

Execution of Romanoffs Reported.

London.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Amsterdam says the Kiev newspapers publish a story given by the valet of the former Emperor of Russia of the murder of the entire Romanoff family by the Bolsheviki. According to this story the once royal family was compelled to live in a single room of a convent at Ekaterinburg for weeks before the murder, under guard of Bolshevik soldiers, who insulted them shamefully.

Berger Indicted.

La Crosse, Wis.—Victor L. Berger, Socialist Congressman-elect, of Milwaukee, and his campaign manager, Louis A. Arnold, were indicted on 16 counts involving alleged violations of the espionage act during his senatorial campaign last March, by the United States grand jury here. Berger is to be tried before Judge Landis in United States District Court at Chicago under similar indictments.

Marine Corps Recruiting Resumed.

Washington.—Recruiting for the Marine Corps will be resumed at once under an order issued by Secretary Daniels. Enlistments will be for four years, former standards will be maintained, and there will be no limit on the number of men to be accepted.
 Emergency substitutions, established during the war in small towns will not be reopened for the present.

Seizure of Lines Threatened.

Cleveland, O.—The special session of the City Council, to consider ending the street car strike, was in session. President Stanley, of the company, told the council at considerable length his position, and replied to many questions by the members of the council.

Hun Leaders To Be Arrested.

Copenhagen.—The Soldiers and Workers' Council at Leipzig has decided that German general headquarters shall be dissolved and Field Marshal von Hindenburg arrested, according to the Lokal Anzeiger, of Berlin.
 The reply of Admiral Beatty, commander of the British grand fleet, to a request by Germany for mitigation of naval terms of the armistice, refuses any concession regarding merchant shipping or fishing in the North Sea, the Berlin Wolff Bureau states.
